

Nationwide Travel Protection PLAN

People today are more mobile than ever before. Visiting faraway friends. Spending time with grandchildren. Taking trips for recreation and business. Getting away to a second home.

Essential Planning for People who Travel

Preparing for the unexpected while you are away from home is important. Should death occur while traveling, transporting your remains from a distant location to your cremation provider can be complicated, costly, and stressful to your next-of-kin.

Adding our Nationwide Travel Protection to your cremation plan lifts the burden from those you love. One phone call to the Cremation Society is all it takes. Our transport facilitators will make the arrangements, and pay the costs up to $2,500, so your family won't have to.
